MC School System asks county to help fund state’s unfunded mandates

At last week’s continued Macon County Board of County Commissioners May meeting, Dr. Chris Baldwin, Superintendent of the Macon County School System, made a plea to commissioners for increased funding for the school system in the Fiscal Year 2019-2020 budget. He reiterated what he discussed at the Board of Education meeting held the night before in “Today, American Legion Post 370 and the Town of Highlands honors not only those whose bodies consecrate our county’s soil, but also those who sleep beyond the seas and in soils of countries where they fell. There have been 1,354,664 American deaths from war. May no soldier go unloved; may no soldier walk alone; may no soldier be forgotten until they all come home.” — Ed McCloskey, Post 370 commander

What tax hikes – fire and ad valorem – mean for homeowners in MC

By Brittney Lofthouse

Macon County Manager Derek Roland’s 2019-2020 fiscal year budget is slated to begin on July 1 and as proposed, would include the county’s first tax increase in a decade.

While a revenue neutral tax rate would be 35.6 cents — and would generate another $400,669 in tax revenue for the county — Roland recommended a mileage rate of 36.9 cents, which would generate another $1.05 million in recurring annual revenue. Even with the small increase, Roland told commissioners the county still had one of the lowest tax rates in the region and throughout the state. The total proposed budget for 2019-20 fiscal year is $52.8 million, a $1.8 million or 3.5 percent increase over the 2018-19 budget.

What does the tax increase mean in terms of dollars for residents?

Macon County’s current tax rate is .00349 or 34.9 cents per $100 valuation of a home. For a home with a $100,000 valuation (not including the Franklin tax which is 32 cents per $100 valuation or the varied fire taxes levied in the county ranging from 6.5 to 12.5 cents) homeowners are currently paying $349 a year in taxes. Just taking the ad valorem taxes into account, if the county were to pass a revenue neutral budget with a tax rate of .003561 or 35.61 cents as in year’s past, that same homeowner would be looking at paying $356.10 a year in taxes, a modest $7.10 annually.

Under the manager’s proposed budget however, the tax rate would be .003694 or 36.94 cents. At the proposed rate an individual owning a $100,000 home would pay $369.40 cents in taxes, essentially a $20 a year increase in taxes.

With homes in Highlands typically valued higher than other

The goal is to require bear-resistant toters in the commercial and residential areas

I want to thank American Legion Post 370 for the moving Memorial Day ceremony this past Monday to the Veteran’s Memorial Park on Oak Street at the Town Hall complex. More than 40 new veterans’ bricks were installed. An application for a veteran brick can be found at the park in front of the police department. There is a small kiosk by the walkway with all the information for purchasing a brick with a veteran’s name on it. I also want to thank Phil Potts and the volunteers who placed flags on the graves of veterans at the Highlands and surrounding cemeteries for the Memorial Day Holiday.

This past weekend I went up to Saturlah to see the progress on the new water tank. It is amazing how this massive structure has been erected on the site. The new tank is twice the size of the old, failing tank. Sometime this fall the new 630,000-gallon tank will come online.

The new bear-proof street cans are now in place. The next step will be to replace all the old commercial toters with bear-resistant toters. This process will begin after the new budget year starts in July. There will be no increase in rental fees for merchants using these new toters. Another step will be to move away from using shared dumpsters and having merchants, when possible, convert to the new toters. Town staff will be working with merchants, especially on Oak Street, in making this conversion.

Another step in becoming a BearWise community will be to use bear-resistant containers in the residential areas. This conversion is more complex, more expensive, and about a year away from implementation. Town staff will be reviewing options and developing a plan in the coming months. As I have stated before, the old system of having our sanitation workers lift 35-gallon trash cans repeatedly every day is on its way out. The town has to move everywhere to toters with lift bars. I have had many folks ask me about the plan. My response is that if one is planning on purchasing new trash cans, consider a bear-resistant toter with a lift bar. They are available at the local hardware store or online. I see throughout the town residences that use 95- and 65-gallon toters. It doesn’t matter about the size as long as there is a lift bar.

This summer I will get rid of my 35-gallon trash cans that are housed in a wooden, bear-resistant stand. I plan on getting a bear-resistant toter and building a new stand.

Tomorrow is the Community Coffee with the Mayor at the Hudson Library beginning at 11 am.

My guest will be Rebecca Shuler, Highlands Director of Finance. Rebecca and I will cover the highlights of the forthcoming budget for FYI 2019/’20. There will be a public hearing for the proposed budget at the June 20 Town Board meeting followed by a final review and approval of the budget that goes into effect July 1.

Rene lived life fully and is now in her forever home, the house of the Lord. Posted in their cabin in North Carolina is her motto: Life should not be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in an attractive, well-preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways, body thoroughly used up, totally worn out, shouting, “Woo-hoo, what a ride!”

Rene is survived and deeply loved by her husband, Jim. They enjoyed 58 wonderful years of marriage together. She is also survived by two daughters, Gail Ramsdell of Safety Harbor, FL and Bonnie McCray of Fort Wayne, IN; two grandchildren Kayla McCray and Connor McCray; brother-in-law, Doug Ramsdell (Betty), and countless friends; who all love her and miss her dearly.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Highlands United Methodist Church (315 Main Street) on Saturday, June 8, 2019 at 2 p.m. with food and fellowship to follow.

Virginia ‘Ginger’ Hightower Kennedy

Virginia (Ginger) Hightower Kennedy died at midnight, May 21st, in Highlands, N.C. Her husband Kevin Naylor was at her bedside at the time of death. The cause of death was complications from lung cancer.

She was born March 5, 1940 in Atlanta, GA and was the daughter of Alfred D. Kennedy Jr. of Atlanta and Jane Virginia (Gina) Hightower Kennedy of Atlanta and Thomaston, GA. She is survived by her best friend and husband of 26 years, Kevin Michael Naylor. She moved to Highlands in 1995 and resided there until her death. She loved gardening, dogs and travel with her husband to places as distant as New Zealand and Angkor Wat Cambodia.

During her lifetime Ms. Kennedy was a member of the Peachtree Garden Club, the Forward Arts Foundation and the Piedmont Driving Club of Atlanta. She served on the Boards of the Bascom Visual Arts Center and the Cashiers-Highlands Humane Society. She and her husband were co-chairpersons of the Collective Spirits event for The Bascom in 2011. She graduated in 1958 from Miss Hewitt’s Classes in New York City.

Ms. Kennedy is survived by her three children, Jane Virginia Saunders of Keswick, VA; Drummond (Dru) Saunders of Bellingham, WA; and Isabelle Kennedy Brock of Atlanta, GA and her grandchildren Harrison Kennedy Brock, Sarah Austell Brock and Jane Cameron Brock; her brother, Alfred D. Kennedy of Atlanta, GA and her sister Edna Thornton Kennedy of Durango, CO.

In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to The Bascom Visual Arts Center in Highlands or the Cashiers-Highlands Humane Society.

A Celebration of Ginger’s Life, to be scheduled at a future date, will be held in Highlands, N.C. Condolences can be made to the family at www.maconfuneralhome.com.

Calling all cat lovers

WHY AM I JUST NOW FINDING OUT THERE ARE CAT HOLIDAYS? YOU’D THINK MY MUM WOULD HAVE KNOWN THERERE WERE SPECIAL DAYS DEDICATED TO US FELINES, BUT IF SHE DID, SHE’S KEPT IT A SECRET.

SPRING AND SUMMER ARE FILLED WITH THESE SPECIAL DAYS, SO CAT LOVERS WILL WANT TO MARK THEIR CALENDARS. FIRST UP IS NATIONAL HUG YOUR CAT DAY ON EITHER MAY 3 OR MAY 30. ACORDING TO THE WEBSITE CATLOGICAL.COM, NO ONE CAN AGREE ON WHICH DAY IT IS SO IF YOU MISSED MAY 3, YOU CAN CELEBRATE MAY 30. TBH, I DON’T MUCH LIKE TO BE HUGGED, SO I’VE TOLD MUM SHE CAN RUB MY EARS AND TICKLE MY CHIN, BUT NO HUGGING NO MATTER WHICH DAY SHE CHOOSES. BANJO LOVES TO BE HUGGED, SO MAYBE SHE CAN HUG HIM INSTEAD.

IN JUNE, WE GET A WHOLE MONTH FOR SHELTER CATS AS IT IS OFFICIALLY ADOPT A SHELTER-CAT MONTH. I’M A LUCKY KITTY WHO NEVER HAD TO GO TO A SHELTER. A KIND LADY RESCUED ME AFTER A MAN TOSSLED ME FROM A PICKUP TRUCK INTO A BUS, AND SHE KEPT ME AT HER HOUSE UNTIL MUM SAW MY PHOTO ON PETFINDER AND CAME TO MEET ME.

THE CLOSEST I’VE COME TO LIVING IN A CAGE IS WHEN I’VE HAD MY TEETH CLEANED AT THE VET, AND THAT’S AS CLOSE AS I EVER WANT TO GET. THE DARNED PET CONTAINER FOR THAT TRIP IS CONFINING ENOUGH. IF YOU DON’T HAVE A CAT, I HOPE YOU’LL VISIT A SHELTER IN JUNE AND FIND A CAT TO MAKE YOUR OWN.

NATIONAL CAT DAY OR WORLD CAT DAY FALLS ON AUGUST 8. THIS HOLIDAY BEGAN IN 2002 AS A WAY TO RAISE AWARENESS OF THE PLOUGH OF HOMELESS CATS. I DON’T KNOW WHAT IT IS ABOUT CAT PEOPLE THAT THEY CAN’T AGREE ON WHICH DAYS THESE HOLIDAYS SHOULD OCCUR. SOME EUROPEAN COUNTRIES CELEBRATE THIS HOLIDAY ON AUGUST 17, AND OTHERS CELEBRATE IT ON OCTOBER 29. GO FIGURE. ON THE OTHER HAND, HAVING THREE DAYS SPREAD THROUGHOUT THE YEAR MAY BE THE WAY TO GO.

I’M NOT SURE I WANT TO CELEBRATE NATIONAL TAKE YOUR CAT TO THE VET DAY AUGUST 22. I DON’T LIKE SHOTS, AND IT WAS AUGUST LAST YEAR WHEN MUM TOOK ME TO HAVE MY TEETH CLEANED, A MOST UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE. PERHAPS IF I KEEP QUIET ABOUT THIS ONE, MUM WILL SKIP IT.

I CAN GET TOTAL ONBOARD WITH SEPTEMBER BEING HAPPY CAT MONTH, AND I HAVE A GREAT IDEA. I’LL LEAVE A NOTE ON MUM’S DESK EVERY NIGHT IN SEPTEMBER TELLING HER WHAT WILL MAKE ME HAPPY THE NEXT DAY. WHEN SHE SITS DOWN IN FRONT OF HER COMPUTER, MY NOTE WILL BE THE FIRST THING SHE SEES … WELL, AFTER SHE SEES THE PENS AND PENCILS I LEAVE ON THE FLOOR EVERY NIGHT.

I KNOW I WANT CONTINUOUS DABS OF WET FOOD IN MY DISH THROUGHOUT THE DAY, TREATS EVERY TIME I JUMP ON THE DESK, BIRDSEED IN THE BIRDFEEDER SO I CAN WATCH THE OUTDOOR CHANNEL FROM MY LITTLE FOOTSTOOL BY THE WINDOW, DAD’S LAP AVAILABLE WHENEVER I WANT IT, AND FRESH TYPING PAPER WITH CRISP CORNERS THAT I CAN CHEW ON. OH HELL, NOW THAT I THINK ABOUT IT, MUM CAN DO ALL OF THESE THINGS EVERY DAY IN SEPTEMBER AND ALL YEAR LONG. I’M A DESERVING LITTLE THING, DON’T YOU AGREE?

The evolution of telephone service in our nation has been constant and sometimes frustrating for those who experience it as it happens. I learned the other day that the two area codes in East Central Florida where we used to live – 321 and 407 – were to be augmented by a third, three-digit prefix, 689.

You might ask why we didn’t change our phone numbers when we left the 407 area. Fair question. Had we switched to an 828 number we would have had to change everything, not just the area code, and would have risked losing contact with a number of friends, former work colleagues and neighbors. I guess we didn’t want to risk that. Or, maybe, we didn’t want to face the inconvenience. Now, it’s possible we’ll be faced with the same situation.

Finding myself midway through my eighth decade on planet Earth I realize I’ve had a lot of history with “the phone company.” So, I’m sure, have you. And we’ve all experienced constant, sometimes disruptive change.

Growing up, I recall letter-designated exchanges (such as NIghtingale, ESplanade, DEwey). My phone number when I was a kid was NI-5-6046. I never forgot it. Even back then in New York City we didn’t have to include the area code.

Then, along came digit-dialing (we dialed phones back then; didn’t punch in numbers until “Princess phones” arrived on the scene in the early 1960s). NI-5-6046 became 645-6046. Then area codes got involved, which brought about ten-digit dialing.

Here on the plateau, when calling locally we don’t yet have to punch in 828. The operative word is “yet.” Call anyplace else, though, and its ten-digit dialing, er, punching.

In the late 1980s, my first “car phone,” was a big, clunky thing anchored to the floor-board next to the gear shift in my Honda. Then came “flip phones,” which resembled the Tricorders aboard the Enterprise on Star Trek.

In 2007, everything changed. “Smart phones” arrived with a huge “Wow” factor. These changed everything. The phone contains a camera, is a game console, and has a gazillion features, known as “apps.” They also dramatically expanded the insidious use of “texting.” There’s almost nothing as closely connected to the scourge known as “staring into the screen syndrome” as texting.

I’m now on my second smart phone and will likely be forced to “upgrade” before too long.

Every day, more and more households are doing away with residential, “hard lines” altogether, in favor of cellular usage.

Whenever the phone company needs to make room for additional residential and business lines, mobile phones, and fax machines, they inconvenience thousands of us by pulling customers from one or two existing area codes and placing them into a new area code, in order to accommodate still more new users.

When I relocated to Florida in 1974, the entire state had three area codes. Now, with the arrival of 689, there are eighteen! In our state we have nine area codes, but only one for the entire western part of North Carolina. 828 showed up in 1988, when the west separated from 704, which remains in effect around Charlotte.

Many of us recall needing “operator assistance” when making long distance calls. Those calls were expensive, so we didn’t make them very often. We sometimes called “collect” (reversing the charges), which meant the people we were calling could either accept or reject the call.

We could call “information” if we needed to obtain someone’s number. We could dial a number and learn what time it was. We recall “pay phones” on every corner (they’re virtually obsolete now), and, some of us may actually remember things like “party lines,” “switch boards,” and those heavy black “receivers,” which sat atop “cradles” featuring large, rotary “dials,” which let us know they were operational by presenting a “dial tone.”

Perhaps nothing else of such a universal nature, something that touches literally every person and household in America, has undergone as much change as telephone service and usage since its inception in 1876. That’s when Mr. Bell “called” his colleague and said, “Mr. Watson – come here – I want to see you.”

No date has been determined as to when the 689-area code will take effect in east Central Florida. I don’t know if our phone numbers will change; honestly, I hope they don’t.

I do know, with metaphysical certainty, when this change occurs, and when future, unknown and unanticipated change happens, it will all be conditioned by most of those affected.

And the Survey Said?

The TV game show “Family Feud” started in 1976 with Richard Dawson and still runs with Host Steve Harvey. If you’re one of the 10 people who haven’t seen the show, the premise is two families pitted against each other vying for the most points to win money. To get points, you have to match your answers to a survey question. This further encouraged our love of ‘top 10’ type publications. Maybe that’s why this one caught my eye from a recent Realtor Magazine article.

Straight from the Zumper.com article What Renters Want: Top 10 Most Requested Amenities (without the article’s commentary)

If you’re still counting-stop. Number 11 was actually an honorable mention.

Those top 10 would most likely be from residential renters. Here on the plateau, most of our renters are a completely different kind of animal, the vacation renter variety. The wants and wishes of residential renters vs. short term renters are basically the same, but the latter tend to be more vocal about the following top 10 list.

The order of preference depends on the renter. 1. Walk-to-town – I’m not sure if it’s because people are more ambulatory these days or don’t want to get in a car after having a drink, but there’s definitely something special about having a place in town.

2. View – Living in these beautiful mountains, it’s not hard to understand someone’s dream of having a mountain vista just outside their bedroom window, but there are many people who consider a wooded view to be the best view. They can drive to see a vista, but the quiet intimacy of a wooded setting is something hard to find in a city.

3. Bedroom-to-bathroom ratio – No matter where the property is, this has become really important. I had a renter refer to those type houses as bathrobe houses, because you can’t leave your bedroom without wearing a bathrobe. 4. Air Conditioning – Yes, I know. We’re ‘air conditioned by nature,’ at least that used to be the slogan of Highlands, but that was before everyone started paving every road and lane, and cutting down trees, and building bigger and bigger homes with hardly any green space. Sometimes I can almost hear the lonely trees crying out, longing for their friends and family, but that’s another story.

5. Outdoor spaces – Homes may be for keeping our cool, but outdoors are meant for living. People are into gardens more than ever whether they’re the actual gardeners or not, others love water features, outdoor entertaining, etc. 6. Fireplaces – Is it the Neanderthal in our genes that makes us want fire? There are fireplaces in living areas, bedrooms, bathrooms and kitchens. With the growing popularity of fire pits, we’re seeing them placed on decks and lawns everywhere. Some are obviously campfire style, but there are lavish ones as well. 7. Internet – Some people can only justify a longer stay in these beautiful mountains if they can stay connected to the world.

8. Zoning or HOA rules — This one is tricky, because the rules aren’t always known when you’re looking to buy, or known when you’re looking to rent. For instance, there are some HOA rules that allow owners to have pets, but not renters. That can lead to confusion and frustration. There are some HOA rules that limit rentals to one week, two weeks, or month-long stays. 9. Laundry — Without a laundromat in town, it means a trip off the mountain unless you go to the dry cleaners. Having a washer/dryer in your home is considered more of a necessity than an amenity.

10. Updated and Well Maintained — There may be some vacation renters that enjoy a low budget rental with ‘Early Attic’ furniture, no internet, small ‘boxy’ TVs that only work with an old VHS system, old appliances (that may or may not have all eyes working), and there are homes available for them, but for the most part, people want updated and well maintained homes.

We know that what people want is generally the same whether our clients are renters, or potential buyers, whether they know it or not. It’s always fun to see that light bulb turn on when that realization hits.

There are exceptions to every rule, but especially when someone is looking to purchase a home that will be offered as a vacation rental. It’s important to know what renters want. Even if the buyers have no plans to rent their homes out, what about the buyers that come after them in 5-10-15 years? The resale value should be as important to a buyer when they’re looking to buy as when they’re considering listing it for sale.

The average length of home ownership of a primary residence is six-to-nine years, and second-home ownership is probably similar. I know of plenty of homeowners who have had second homes in our area for much, much longer, but I guess when you figure in the flippers, the average goes down.

parts of the county, the tax increase would obviously mean more out-of-pocket expenses for homeowners.

Not including the Highlands town tax of 1.64 cents per $100 valuation or the fire tax, for a home valued at $1 million, homeowners are currently paying $3,490 annual at the current tax rate. With a revenue a neutral rate, that same homeowner would pay $3,561 in taxes, a $71 a year increase. Roland’s proposed budget would mean the homeowner would pay $3,694 in annual taxes, a $204 increase over the current year.

The town of Highlands also approved a 2-cent fire tax increase, however that increase is pending county approval. Currently town residents pay 1 cent per $100 valuation of a home. The increase would push that rate to 3 cents per $100 valuation. Proceeds would fund a new fire department main station.

“We are raising the fire tax to build a new station and eventually have 24/7 staff coverage,” said Mayor Patrick Taylor. “We need a station with barracks and decontamination facilities for staff and gear after a fire. We currently have the lowest fire tax rate in the county.”

According to Macon County Emergency Management Director Warren Cabe, the last time the Highlands Fire Department requested a tax increase was in 2014 when the rate was increased from .009 to the current rate of .0108.

Dewey ‘Pete’ King

Dewey “Pete” King, 93, of Scaly Mountain, NC passed away Monday, May 27, 2019.

Born in Leake County, MS, he was the son of the late William Richard King and Mattie Caroline Mosley King. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy King. Pete was a US Army Veteran serving during World War II. He was a member of Our Lady of the Mountains Catholic Church and worked as a salesman, most recently at Mountain High Lodge in Highlands. Pete enjoyed fishing in the Bahamas, camping, and watching the Miami Dolphins.

He is survived by his daughter, Karen King of Scaly Mountain, NC and several nieces and nephews.

A Graveside Service will be held at a later date in Florida.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Highlands School Class of 2019 graduation
The world culture and society are changing with warp speed. American values are being challenged and disregarded by many. Advertisements blare with “This diet!” or “That clothing!” or “This automobile!” These are things we are told must have to make our lives meaningful.

It’s all so phony! It’s the “Eat, Drink and be Merry” philosophy of Hedonism. We are a “Me” saturated culture. Long-term thinking and eternal decisions seem foreign to our instant high-tech world. Indeed, the Church has not escaped this influence. It seems, that for the most part, we are spoiled, demanding and petulant. The humility and brokenness of Jesus do not draw us. Purity, holiness and sacrifice require a cost we are unwilling to pay.

How we need a shaking! An awakening. Even an abrupt confrontation. We need to see the ugliness of our sin. The shallowness of our Christian commitment. The futility of our temporal pursuits. It seems, ironically, that the great blessings of God on our nation are just about to kill us! We are fat, sassy, indolent, passive, unsatisfied and complaining.

He giveth more Grace... and we wanteth more Goodies! The prosperity of our culture and the passivity of the Church have no precedent in history. The Church has essentially traded Her values. The immediate satisfaction of a bowl of soup has far outweighed the incomparable peace of living in the fullness of our birthright. The Body of Jesus is weighed down by the sugar of spiritual candy and is diseased by the intake of the philosophy of Hedonism. We are a “Me” saturated culture. Long-term thinking and eternal decisions seem foreign to our instant high-tech world. Indeed, the Church has not escaped this influence.

But, frankly, what it may cost may surprise everyone. The Lord will not tolerate compromise forever. He will not permit His Name entrusted to the Church to fall into disrepute by the World because of the Church. A day of reckoning is surely coming. Life as we know it with its comforts, gadgets and toys may indeed either come to an end or be required of us by the Lord. In order to get our attention back to Him, with Him and on Him, alone. How He desires to give good things to His own! But, when the provisions from the Hand of the Lord satisfy us more than fellowship with the Lord, then we ought to heed the warning lights. It is quite possible that we are indeed in the Laodicean age of the Church. Neither hot or cold and even now at the point of a holy ejection of spit from His mouth.

Or: We can buy gold from Him refined in the fire. We can become rich in Him. We can wear the white clothing of a Bride’s dress. Our shame can be covered and our eyes may yet see Him.

The ones He loves He rebukes and disciplines. So, we should be earnest and repent. He is even now standing at our heart’s door and knocking. If we will hear His Voice, open the door and ask Him in, He will come in and dine and fellowship with us to our mutual joy and sweet satisfaction. And to those who are victorious He will give the right to sit with Him on His Throne!

Let those who have ears hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

The Highlands Cashiers Health Foundation seeks to address social determinants of health that uniquely challenge our surrounding communities. We believe in investing in programs that offer constructive solutions and measurable improvements for healthy living. We want to partner with your organization to keep our communities strong and vibrant for years to come.

Building Healthy Communities

Apply Today!

Grant applications available through June 15

Highlands Cashiers Health Foundation is now accepting grant applications online www.hchealthfnd.org

WE WELCOME APPLICATIONS FROM ORGANIZATIONS ADDRESSING THESE FOCUS AREAS

Access to Healthcare

Education Initiatives

Community Vitality

Economic Stability

Given our mountainous terrain and population demographics, access to care plays a vital role in supporting healthy and strong communities. We welcome proposals that involve emergency and public transportation, indigent care, behavioral health, physician recruitment and retention.

The attainment of education is one of the highest factors in predicting good health. We welcome proposals to advance technologies for academic enrichment, reduce K-12 absenteeism, improve student access to health and counselor professionals, teacher development and retention, early childhood learning and literacy improvement for all ages.

There are numerous opportunities for manifesting healthful mountain living. We welcome proposals for community initiatives to promote healthy, active lifestyles, community health screenings, broadband access and substance abuse prevention programs.

Affordable housing initiatives and food insecurity are among the most critical needs to be addressed for a sustainable economy.
